

E-Journal Survey 2002

Business	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you in any way	1	24	2
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research	3	24	1
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students	4	20	3
Would you support such a move	19	5	3
Interest in email bulletin	24	2	1
Number of Responses	27

Environment	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you in any way		18
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research		18
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students		18
Would you support such a move	17		1
Interest in email bulletin	16		2
Number of Responses	18

Technology	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you in any way		30	2
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research	1	29	2
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students	2	28	2
Would you support such a move	30	1	1
Interest in email bulletin	27		5
Number of Responses	32

Science	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you I any way	4	64
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research	1	67
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students	3	60	5
Would you support such a move	60	2	6
Interest in email bulletin	57	3	8
Number of Responses	68

HUMSS	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you I any way	4	30	2
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research	4	30	2
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students	5	28	3
Would you support such a move	30	4	2
Interest in email bulletin	33	1	2
Number of Responses	36

Non-faculty/not known	Yes	No	NR
Has the change to e-only access to Elsevier journals inconvenienced you I any way	1	13	1
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your research	1	13	1
Would a further extension of e-only access inconvenience your teaching/students	1	12	2
Would you support such a move	13	2
Interest in email bulletin	12	2	1
Number of Responses	15

Total Number of responses - 196