

You can access Reading Lists from the library website by clicking on the Reading List tab. You can search for your Reading List by unit number, name, or by a keyword from your unit title. You can link directly to books and articles online or to the Library catalogue record, you can see how many copies are available to borrow. Make a note of the numbers and letters, as this will give you an idea of where it can be found on the shelves. Online resources will link to an eBook, by clicking on the title you can check the details and also see if there are newer editions.
